The apartment enjoys dual frontage and benefits from natural light throughout the day due to its corner position within the building. The property occupies a privileged location at the intersection of two central streets of Katerini, offering direct access to the city's commercial and administrative center. Area Description The property is located in the "Center-Revised Urban Unit" of Katerini, one of the city's most established and sought-after residential areas. The apartment is situated approximately 250 meters southeast of Katerini's Central Square and approximately 300 meters northwest of Heroes Square, placing it within walking distance of shops, schools, banks, public services, restaurants and cafes. The area offers excellent accessibility to the city center and the main exit routes of Katerini, while maintaining strong and stable residential demand. Despite the limited availability of parking spaces, properties in the area tend to remain highly marketable and rarely stay vacant for long periods. The combination of central location, proximity to everyday amenities and strong rental demand makes the property suitable both for owner occupation and investment purposes.
